

HB 292 -- High School Transitional Skills Class

Sponsor: Spencer

Beginning with school year 2016-2017, public high school students must successfully complete a transitional skills class to graduate from high school. Transitional skills focus on preparation for independent adult life after high school, building on the principles covered in the required personal finance course.